

P.E.R.S.I.A. Historical Analysis

Political – Having to do with government, politics, military, or political power and control.

Economic – Having to do with the production, distribution, exchange, trade, consumption, ownership of wealth and property, or taxation.

Religious – Having to do with the religious institutions that govern and influence specific regions.

Social – Having to do with human beings as individuals and/or as members of groups, communities, or classes.

Intellectual / Ideological – Having to do with specific philosophies, ideologies and scientific thoughts and discoveries that helped form political, economic, social, and religious policies and doctrines.

Arts – Having to do with the visual and written arts and architecture that characterize specific regions, cultures, religions and time periods throughout world history.

Political	Economic	Religious	Social	Intellectual	Arts
Forms of Government	Trade and Trade Routes	Religion	Classes	Philosophy	Architecture
Law Codes	Land ownership	Religious Toleration	Hierarchy	Scientific Advances	Painting
Legal Systems	Private Property	Theology	Majority	Mathematics	Sculpture
War	Supply	Dogma	Minority	Scientific Theories	Poetry
Military	Demand	Values	Ethnic Group	Written Records	Literature
Crime and Punishment	Raw Materials	Ideals	Gender Roles	Scribes	Drama
Conservative	Colonies	Monotheism	Education	Language	Technique
Liberal	Cheap labor	Polytheism	Status	Astronomy	Style
Sovereignty	Currency	Judaism	Birth Rituals	Calendar	Culture
Foreign Relations	Taxes	Hinduism	Marriage Rituals		Period
Absolute Power	Debt	Buddhism	Coming of Age Rituals		Religion
Limited Power	Agriculture	Islam	Death Rituals		Propaganda
Constitution	Barter	Animism	Divorce		Music
Representative Democracy	Poverty	Atheism	Health		Dance
Totalitarian	Employment	Christianity	Epidemics
Monarchy	Specialized Workers	Superstitions	Dress / Clothing
Autocracy	Record Keeping	Mythology	Concept of Beauty
Oligarchy	Investment	Sacred Texts	Literacy
Senate	Mercantilism	Holidays	Language
Matriarchal	Capitalism	Ancestor Worship	Games
Patriarchal	Income	Afterlife	Customs
Communism	Resources	Covenant	Entertainment
Imperialism	Industry	Sin	Housing
Conquest	Tribute	Forgiveness	Rural / Urban
		Ceremonies	Prejudices
			Stereotypes		